Commendation for employees of Cable Archives -

1. These three employees are doing an excellent job. They are conscientious, hard working men who through the years have made a constructive contribution to CIA's record system by successfully processing and referencing many of the Agency's cables.

2. I talked to many people during the course of my recent survey and all were pleased by the service given by the Cable Archives. In particular, they were impressed with the splendid attitude of [] I, too, was impressed.

3. I wish to officially thank them for the cooperation and assistance given me during my survey of the Cable Archives.
